

Example response for Practice task 8

Example interview questions the learner may have prepared:

- How do you document ongoing skill development in the individual plan of a person with disability?
- How do you ensure the information is documented effectively?
- What adjustments would you make to your written communication to ensure the information is accurately recorded and understood by the person with disability?

The learner's summary should be succinct and use examples to address:

- how ongoing skill development is documented in a person's individual plan
- how written communication is adjusted to ensure the information is correctly recorded and understood.
